Summer is a state of mind.

Hello friends! I want to share my impressions of the train at sea. This summer, my family and I went on vacation to the Black Sea in Sochi. There are a lot of different entertainments in the city that are suitable for people of any age. Every day we went to the beach, walked around the city and visited various interesting places of the city. We also went on an excursion in the mountains. I really enjoyed the trip. I saw and learned a lot of interesting things. Next year I would like to go to the sea again! I advise you to go there too, to experience the emotions that I experienced. Myasnikova Anastasya 10A.

Summer holidays are not only a time for relaxation, but also an opportunity to earn money. During the summer holidays I worked in the rental of children's cars. The work is not difficult, but it requires attention and the ability to count money. Spending the whole day outdoors and in the sun requires a certain amount of endurance. Communicating with children and their parents, it was necessary to show restraint, not paying attention to the whims of children. During the period of work I had to communicate a lot with different people. From this communication I got some life experience. From my little work experience, I realized that any job requires certain skills and perseverance of character. I was satisfied with my work in material terms, but for the future I would like more informative work. Forverte Valerya 9V.

Summer is one of my favorite seasons. In summer, you can go fishing, sunbathe on the sea or go to the village. This summer, my family and I went to Kazan. Kazan is the capital of the Republic of Tatarstan. It's also one of the most exciting cities I've ever seen. Therefore, I advise you to visit the Kazan Kremlin. It is located in the city center. Usually there are a lot of tourists here. This building is a kind of symbol of Kazan. I took some pictures there. Other interesting places are the Kul Sharif Mosque, the Temple of All Religions, the Riviera Water Park. All these places are worth visiting. As for me, all these places can be symbols of Kazan. They are truly unique and historical. Cultural training is also at a good level. There you can find the Academic Opera, the Museum of Natural History and other culturally interesting institutions. After this trip, I have a lot of memories and photos of this beautiful city.

Many countries celebrate their Teachers' Day on 5 October in conjunction with World Teachers' Day, which was established by UNESCO in 1994.

Teacher's Day is a special day for the appreciation of teachers, and may include celebrations to honor them for their special contributions in a particular field area or the community tone in education.

There was a festive concert dedicated to Teacher's Day at School № 47 in Cheboksary. A warm atmosphere permeated with good mood and positive emotions reigned here.

The morning of our teachers began with congratulations to the children's school "Crossroads", and then master classes were held for grade 12, which were conducted by teachers of School № 47: Tamara Yakovlevna, Terekhovs Mikhail Yuryevich and Elena Anatolyevna, Maxim Flavianovich.

Photo zones were prepared on the eve of the holiday at our school too.

The event was held in a warm, friendly atmosphere. Words of gratitude and appreciation to the teachers were heard from the stage in poetry and prose, in songs and dances. The creative teams of our school demonstrated bright and talented performances, which undoubtedly pleased their teachers.

HALLOWEEN FACTS

WHAT?

Halloween is a holiday celebrated all around the world.

People wear costumes, they celebrate parties, and they decorate their houses and carve pumpkins.

It is a very special holiday for the children because they wear spooky costumes, they go "trick or treating" house by house and people at their houses give candies and sweets to them.

WHEN?

Halloween is celebrated annually on the 31st of October, just the evening before All Saints Day.

Halloween is the short name of All Hallows' Eve.

HISTORY OF HALLOWEEN

Halloween is a Celtic celebration called Samhain /sah-wen/. Samhain marked the end of summer and the end of summer harvest.

Ancient Celts were very superstitious and they believed that on October the 31st, the spirits of the dead came back to towns and villages. To keep these spirits away, they dressed up in scary costumes made from animal skins. They also made noise in streets and fired up huge bonfires.

JACK O' LANTERNS

According to an old tale, a drunken farmer named Stingy Jack was not allowed to enter both heaven and hell after his death. His soul wandered in the darkness. He carved out a lantern out of a turnip to light his way and guide his soul.

The Celts believed in this story of Jack Stingy, so they began to place Jack o' Lanterns outside their houses. The purpose was to guide lost souls home while they wandered during the Samhain festival eve.

MORE FACTS

- The traditional colours of Halloween are black and orange. Orange comes from the autumn harvest and black represents death.

- Cats, spiders and bats are Halloween icons because they were believed to be witches servants in the past.

Thanksgiving Day. History.

A legendary Thanksgiving celebration was held in 1621. The terrible winter of the previous year had been difficult for the Pilgrims. Many of the Pilgrims had died because of illness and lack of shelter. The Thanksgiving celebration was held after the Pilgrims had their first harvest--after they had gathered their first crops.

The writings of the Pilgrims tell us that about 140 people attended the three-day celebration. Ninety of the people were Wampanoag men.

About 50 people were Pilgrims. Only four of the Pilgrims at the party were women. The feast was held outside because the Pilgrims did not have a building large enough to hold so many people.

The Pilgrims were thankful for the harvest and for the help of the Wampanoag in teaching them to grow crops in America. Without their help, the Pilgrims would have had little to eat. The menu for the first Thanksgiving included venison, or deer meat, and fowl, which included ducks, geese, and turkeys. Sea bass, cod fish, cornmeal, fruits and vegetables were also served.

*Happy
Thanksgiving!*

Games were played, and singing and dancing were also part of the celebration. Praises were given to God for the harvest and for the Pilgrims that survived the harsh winter.

Thanksgiving in America is now celebrated on the fourth Thursday in November. Families prepare a meal similar to the meal prepared by the Pilgrims and Wampanoag 400 years ago. It is a time for counting the blessings we have received during the year and for spending time with family and friends.
